2. Objectives

- 2.1 To befriend and meet the emotional and practical needs of the community and various groups through befriending, companionship, appropriate activities and services.
- 2.2 To help children and youth in their educational development through tuition and other fun activities; and instill right moral values; a sense of social responsibility and love through adult modeling.
- 2.3 To provide for the welfare of senior citizens, the intellectually or physically disabled, rehabilitation of drug addicts, and delinquent or emotionally troubled persons.
- 2.4 To maximize and facilitate the abilities and potential of individuals and groups alike through training support programs and opportunities
- 2.5 To redefine and inspire a culture of 'out-of-the-way' love in individuals, families and that community; that anyone and everyone can be of service to others; encouraging those who have been served with love to go out and do the same for others.

3. Policies

- 3.1 Our charity organization is a non-profit subsidiary of the Church, Revival Nation [T05SS0159B]. However, our charity organization will maintain the sole objective of helping the residents in our community, and will not impose any religious agenda in its activities or services, such as the propagation of religious beliefs, any form of prayer, and distribution of materials.
- 3.2 Our charity organization receives funding from the Church, Revival Nation and from public donations, and the funds go directly into community betterment. No funds from our charity organization will go to the Church, Revival Nation.

4. Staffing

All our staff in 2018 were on volunteer basis.

5. Review of Financial Statement and Explanation of All Major Financial Transactions

Our charity organization recorded a deficit of $38.00 in the year 2018, due to bank fees. Nevertheless our balance sheet remains healthy with assets of $8,119.37.

6. Calendar of Events

6.1 Activities running throughout the Year 2018:

In 2016, Change Our World began to explore the possibility of restarting community work within the Jalan Besar area, and did a survey among some of the residents.

It shares the premises with Revival Nation [UEN: T05SS0159B].

7. Future Plans and Commitments

Change Our World will continue to explore the possibility of engaging the youth within our community, come up with workable projects and looking for manpower to run these projects.

7.1 Confines of conducted activities:

Activities are open to all members of the public. To sign up for any activity conducted by Change Our World, they are required to fill in a Personal Particulars Form. This is to aid the society with the distribution of future events and other information to the volunteers.

Official Membership in Change Our World is currently limited to only volunteers above 14 years old.

7.2 Affiliation

While we are a non-profit subsidiary to the Church, Revival Nation, Singapore [T05SS0159B], we have a strict policy of not using activities or services to propagate the Christian Faith. This organization exists with the sole objective of providing services to the community and general public regardless of race or religion.
