2. Objectives

- 2.1 To befriend and meet the emotional and practical needs of the community and various groups through befriending, companionship, appropriate activities and services.
- 2.2 To help children and youth in their educational development through tuition and other fun activities; and instill right moral values; a sense of social responsibility and love through adult modeling.
- 2.3 To provide for the welfare of senior citizens, the intellectually or physically disabled, rehabilitation of drug addicts, and delinquent or emotionally troubled persons.
- 2.4 To maximize and facilitate the abilities and potential of individuals and groups alike through training support programs and opportunities.
- 2.5 To redefine and inspire a culture of 'out-of-the-way' love in individuals, families and that community; that anyone and everyone can be of service to others; encouraging those who have been served with love to go out and do the same for others.

3. Policies

- 3.1 Our charity organization is a non-profit subsidiary of the Church, The Evolution [T05SS0159B]. However, our charity organization will maintain the sole objective of helping the residents in our community, and will not impose any religious agenda in its activities or services, such as the propagation of religious beliefs, any form of prayer, and distribution of religious materials.
- 3.2 Our charity organization receives funding from the Church, The Evolution and from public donations. Aside from direct betterment of the community, our organization will be prudent with finances, and avoid spending outside of necessary expenses as much as possible. No funds from our charity organization will go to the Church, The Evolution.

4. Staffing

All our staff in 2020 were on volunteer basis.

5. Review of Financial Statement and Explanation of All Major Financial Transactions

Our charity organization recorded a deficit of $1,885.87 in the year 2020, due to incoming donations from The Giving Tree in December 2020 that was delayed, and came in only in March 2021. Our balance sheet remains healthy with assets of $6,074.00.

6. Calendar of Events

6.1 Activities running throughout the Year 2020:

Change Our World piloted 4 rounds of Migrant Worker Giveaways and 1 Blood Donation Drive in 2018 and 2019.

In 2020, Change Our World organised 1 round of Blood Donation Drive and 1 round of Migrant Worker Giveaway, including 3 sessions of engaging youth volunteers with gift packing and sharing with them about the lives of migrant workers.

It shares the premises with The Evolution [UEN: T05SS0159B].

7. Future Plans and Commitments

Change Our World will continue to explore the possibility of engaging the youth within our community, come up with workable projects and looking for manpower to run these projects.

7.1 Confines of conducted activities:

Activities are open to all members of the public. To sign up for any activity conducted by Change Our World, they are required to fill in a Personal Particulars Form. This is to aid the society with the distribution of future events and other information to the volunteers.

Official Membership in Change Our World is currently limited to only volunteers above 14 years old.

7.2 Affiliation

While we are a non-profit subsidiary to the Church, The Evolution, Singapore [T05SS0159B], we have a strict policy of not using activities or services to propagate the Christian Faith. This organization exists with the sole objective of providing services to the community and general public regardless of race or religion.
